++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A fine evening turning cloudy with scattered showers early Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine evening for most, with any cloud largely restricted to the coast and the east. Cloud building up overnight, with some areas possibly seeing fog or mist in the early morning, with possible isolated light showers in the northwest. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Friday:
A murky start in places, but soon turning bright and sunny for all, but with scattered showers developing from late morning, some heavy. Cooler along coasts. Rain moving in overnight. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Feeling muggy with a mix of sunny spells and widespread showers throughout this period, heaviest on Sunday. Risk thunder over the weekend too. Some low cloud, especially Sunday night.
